THE COUNTY ACCOUNT.

As statements of the expenditure of public funds are always of very great public interest we have no doubt that the County Account for the year 1900 appearing in another column will be carefully scrutinized, and for the purpose of giving imformation regarding it we make a comparison of the account for 1900 with that of 1899 in those items which indicate the character of public of 1897 and leave the libel law just as a

GIVE YOUR HOGS GOOD SHELTER.

We are here again to remark that good shelter saves lots of teed. And this is the season to which the remark applies for ably. Your logs must have a shelter to protect them or you must furnish feed as fuel to keep up steam The shelter is the cheapest - it coats less than to feed. We don't expect anybody to dispute this brief bit of leasoning, bus we do expect about half the hog raisers of the country to that to profit by H. Why? Oh, because it is easier to let thingage. About an even half of us were born into the world with Spanish constitutions. # Sleep.

Nothing adds more to vigor of body and cheerfulness of mind, or aids so well in chasing away the lines ofworry and care from the weary brow, as good, sound refreshing sleep But when the gray matter of the brain has been robbed of its vitality and constructive strength by weak, wornout and exhausted nerves, sleep gives way to restless tossing and long hours of feverish distress. Do you want a good sleep? You can get it if you go about it right.
